Peace Propositions

The telegraph has recently reported several rumors in regard to the termination of the war and a settlement of the questions which have caused it. As we believe all these stories to be purely sensational and thrown out by way of experimenting upon the public credulity, we have not been inclined to pay any attention to them. Indeed there can be only one mode of disposing of the great controversy, and it depends upon the disloyal States alone where it shall be ended. They have only to cease resistance to the Constitution and the laws, which are as obligatory upon them as upon us, and the war is over. Nor do we see how it can be concluded in any other way. Each of these States are at perfect liberty to elect its representatives to the Federal Congress, and when any one does so it is again in its place and cannot be disturbed by any power whatever. There may be questions of individual guilt and personal responsibility to be settled by the Courts or the clemency of the President, but the majority of the Southern people need have no fears that their return to allegiance will not be joyfully welcomed. Until they do so return and cease their rebellious conduct we trust there will be no act on the part of the Government calculated to weaken or tone down its majesty and its dignity. But we regard all discussion of such questions at the present time as premature and unnecessary. In scattered portions of the South there may be a decided sympathy with the Union, but the majority there are still so much under the influence of prejudice and of unprincipled demagogues, that until we have achieved yet more signal and overwhelming victories, we have no confidence in any measures of the Government looking toward the pacification of the rebellion.

There must still be hard and vigorous fighting, and it ought not to be postponed. The sooner it is accomplished, the more merciful will it be. Thus only, as it seems to us, shall we assert and maintain the power and glory of the country, and prove its ability to crush rebellion against its authority and that it has a dignity among the nations of the earth never hereafter to be resisted or even questioned by foreign or domestic foes.

New Paint Mines.—A recent number of the California Farmer contains an account of the discovery of paint mines near Martinez. The mine or lead of ocher substances, begins about three hundred yards from the main street in Martinez on the sea shore and extending to a very considerable distance along the beach, the leads going down below the bay, and extending into the banks on the shore to an indefinable terminus. The experiments already made exhibit eighty four different tints, from the most delicate and soft shades of dove color to the brightest vermillion. It is evident that there is material sufficient to supply the United States for a hundred years. The buildings just completed are on the shore convenient for barges to convey the material to the mill, thus making a good saving of expense in carriage. The manufactory is twenty four by sixty feet—a substantial building, a steam engine of twenty horse power will carry all the machinery for grinding, etc. There will be four paint mills that will turn out from six to ten tons a day as the demand may be. There are six well-defined leads of ocher, besides many substances of value to be worked.

Washington Territory Election.—We anticipated full returns last night from the Sound counties, but were disappointed. The Standard gives only the following:

Majorities for Raynor.—Thurston county, 30; Pierce, 11; Lewis 17; Cowlitz 11; Wahkiakum 12; Clalm 14; King 25.

Majorities for Cole.—Chehalis county, 1; Snohomish, 20; Island 41; Jefferson 41; Kitsap (two precincts) 11.

We are sorry to be compelled to believe from the complexion of the returns so far that Mr Cole is elected by a small majority. This result would have easily been avoided if Mr Raynor had not been compelled to bear the shame and reproach which attaches in Washington Territory to that portion of the Federal officers who are identified with the Surveyor General.

Election Returns.—The vote of Clark County has been officially counted with the following result: H O Raynor (Union) 1[illegible]; George E Cole (Dem) 1[illegible]. The following candidates on the Democratic county ticket were elected by majorities ranging from [illegible] to 7[illegible]: A [illegible] Lawrence, Probate Judge; Louis Sohns, Treasurer; G W Hart, County Commissioner; [illegible] Bozarth, Assessor; J T Bowles, Assemblyman. The Union party elected two of their candidates for the Legislature by small majorities, to wit: [illegible] Austin and John [illegible].

Observe the Distinction.—There is a persistent effort on the part of the [illegible] to [illegible] the distinction between the radical fanatical abolitionists and the loyal supporters of the Government. There should be a corresponding effort on the part of the friends [illegible] [illegible] masses of the people in the [illegible] are Democratic leaders [illegible] [illegible] paper [illegible] of Wendell Phillips [illegible] bodies [illegible] and Ward [illegible] the Union are equally [illegible] difficult to [illegible] distinguish [illegible] which is patent to all intelligent [illegible] the [illegible] illustrated [illegible] distinction between Democrats and [illegible] guilty of a most unfortunate [illegible] nation. Let it be remembered and [illegible] that neither loyalty nor treason [illegible] culiar to any political organization—that a citizen stands by the Government in essentials he is loyal, no matter by what name he may call himself, and that if his course [illegible] strength to the rebellion [illegible] Government [illegible]

The Vice President of the Rebel Confederacy Hopeless of Success.—The [illegible] received by the [illegible] arrival [illegible] statement from its New York correspondent [illegible] in large type, as follows: [illegible] Important Intelligence from the South [illegible] President Stephens Regards the Rebel Cause as Hopeless. A Party Favorable to Reconstruction in Georgia. These statements [illegible] correspondent [illegible] from a gentleman holding a prominent position in Georgia. This gentleman declares that the North can have no idea of the deep gloom and discouragement which prevail among the people of the Southern States. The [illegible] for a time caused rejoicing and positive [illegible] the months passed by, and the utter impossibility of driving back the Federal forces, [illegible] of compelling them to relax their hold upon the fertile districts [illegible] succeeded in occupying, became apparent, the people began to realize the magnitude of the task which they had undertaken, and now [illegible] seems to have seized upon them, and they await the development of the future with gloomy apprehension [illegible] hopefulness.

Vice President Stephens had a severe [illegible] with President Davis some months ago, and since it occurred they have not been on speaking terms. Mr Stephens [illegible] expressed his conviction that the Confederate experiment is a failure, and all hopes of its ultimate success have long since vanished. It is also asserted that many of the influential men in Georgia are in favor of a [illegible] of the Union.—Boston Journal, May 2[illegible].

War Democrats in New York.—The Albany Evening Argus, the central Democratic organ of the State of New York, and understood to express the present sentiments of Gov Seymour, says:

As regards the subject of peace [illegible] the [illegible] of every [illegible] declare that the only true, lasting and beneficent peace which can be made is one that will once more embrace the whole Union under the aegis of the Constitution. A peace [illegible] of separation would be [illegible] for war. Separation would be but [illegible] dissolution, and dissolution [illegible]. Those who demand an instant peace propose in effect that the [illegible] at Washington and Richmond should partition this once united country between them and destroy forever all the chances of its reconstruction and sink forever the cause of constitutional liberty throughout the world. No! let us have no such peace! If war is forced upon us as the alternative, let us sustain our armies in the field, with all the resources they call for.

Constitutional Democracy.—An Indianapolis dispatch of June 18th to the Chicago Tribune, gives the following illustration of the fruits of Vallandigham's teachings, and of the Democratic idea of every man being his own Supreme Court:

The last feat of the copperheads is the capture of an Enrolling Commissioner at Whitestown, in Boone county, on Monday last, by some twenty-five or thirty butternuts. Two of these fellows held the Commissioner while some women pelted him with eggs. Four of the most active participators were arrested, brought to this city, and are now having a hearing before the United States Commissioner. Fletcher Freeman, one of the Enrolling Commissioners in Sullivan county, was shot down this morning as he was riding along the county road.

Jeff Davis Threatening North Carolina.—From Newbern, North Carolina, we learn that Jeff Davis threatens Gov Vance to lay that State waste if any attempt is made to take it out of the Confederacy. [illegible] position is made to the liberal course of Gov Vance and the Legislature, and fault [illegible] with the Supreme Court and the Raleigh Standard and other papers for their [illegible] of the rights of the poor whites, in their efforts to get out of the present scrape. J B [illegible] has set aside the decision of the North Carolina Supreme Court in liberating a conscript named Irwin, who had furnished a substitute. He claims and will receive the protection of the State. It is said that General Foster could raise 75,000 troops for service in his department had he the authority [illegible] so.—N Y Evening Post.

How Winthrop was Killed.—A captain in the army writes to the Boston [illegible] at Major Winthrop killed at Great Bethel was shot by a negro. The writer says:

I have it from a member of the [illegible] of Hampton [illegible] who was present at the fight at [illegible] Winthrop fell [illegible] was shot by a negro at the suggestion [illegible] command of the captain of the [illegible] said to him substantially—[illegible] will take you to [illegible] and sell you. If you wish to stay with your wife [illegible] drive them out of Virginia. [illegible] and unconsciously to him there fell one of the earliest and best friends of the [illegible] will be [illegible]

Cincinnati, July 16.—At two o'clock last night Morgan's scouts reached West Union, Adams Co., [illegible] miles from the river. The scouts reached the river opposite Maysville this morning, but were driven back by gunboats.

New York, July 16.—Gold has fallen [illegible] 127. Markets dull; no business of importance being done.

Proclamation.

It has pleased Almighty God to hearken to the supplications and prayers of an afflicted people and to vouchsafe to the army and the navy of the United States victory on land and sea so signal and effective as to furnish reasonable ground for augmented confidence that the Union of these States will be sustained, their Constitution preserved, and their peace and prosperity permanently restored. But these victories have been achieved not without sacrifices of life, limb, health and liberty incurred by the brave, loyal and patriotic citizens. While affliction in every part of the country follows in the train of these fearful bereavements, it is meet and right to recognize and confess the presence of the Almighty Father and the power of His hand equally in these triumphs and these sorrows.

Now, therefore, be it known that I do set apart Thursday, the 6th day of August next, to be observed as a day for National Thanksgiving, Praise and Prayer, and I invite the people of the United States to assemble on that occasion in their customary places of worship, and in the form approved by their own consciences, render the homage due to the Divine Majesty for the wonderful things He hath done in the nation's behalf, and invoke the influence of His holy spirit to subdue the anger which has produced and so long sustained a needless and cruel rebellion; to change the hearts of the insurgents; to guide the Counsels of the Government with wisdom adequate to so great a national emergency, and to visit with tender care and consolation throughout the length and breadth of the land, all those whom, through the vicissitudes of battles and sieges, have been brought to suffer in mind, body or estate, and finally to lead the whole nation through the paths of repentance and submission to Divine Will back to perfect enjoyment of Union and fraternal peace.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, on the 15th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1863, and of the independence of the United States of America the eighty eighth.

Signed, ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By W. H. Seward, Sec'y of State.

Hopeless.—Never were things so orderly in Portland as at the present; never were our Recorder's and Courts so utterly destitute of [illegible] and defendants. But while we [illegible] the citizens upon this [illegible] evidence of the strict morality and [illegible] of the City of Portland, where [illegible] source for our own sorrows at the [illegible] of such a lamentable condition [illegible] How feelingly we appreciate the truth of the proverb that "one man's meat is [illegible] man's poison." While society is [illegible] in an orderly community, the local [illegible] in the unfathomable depths of [illegible] Where shall he hope to find [illegible] and tragical local item [illegible] discouraging circumstances? W[illegible] tience and serenity unparalleled [illegible] advent of the immortal Job have [illegible] vain for that panacea for all our [illegible] interesting local circumstance. W[illegible] severance worthy of a higher reward [illegible] scoured the city daily with discou[illegible] sults. Is there no balm in Gilead? [illegible] despairing and sinister moments, [illegible] signs of hiring some able bodied [illegible] perform some mysterious deed obtru[illegible] selves before our excited imaginat[illegible] the dread that the aforesaid able-b[illegible] man might commence operations [illegible] selves alone prevents us offering him [illegible] tive situation. In the meantime, [illegible] we shall imitate the renowned phi[illegible] Micawber, and patiently and hope[illegible] for "something to turn up."

Explanation.—A local item, a [illegible] ings since, deeply afflicted, as we [illegible] worthy and industrious couple, w[illegible] bring produce to the city from the [illegible] of the river, and have been led to [illegible] that reference was therein had to th[illegible] they declare and we doubt not justly [illegible] such controversy took place between [illegible] is suggested in our joking allusion, [illegible] we hope that those who have supp[illegible] reference was had to them will un[illegible] that we alluded only to what actua[illegible] place, and not to the conjectures of [illegible] dlesome individuals who desire to ma[illegible] ple in a happy and well-ordered [illegible] There are more Johns than one and [illegible] and his wife to whom we now refer a[illegible] for their patient, vigilant and faithfu[illegible] tion to all the duties which concern th[illegible]

City Improvements.—We confess [illegible] are entirely unable to keep our reader[illegible] in regard to all the substantial improv[illegible] made in Portland by our enterprisi[illegible] zens, who seem disposed to make their [illegible] accomplish the highest and most pr[illegible] result. Fine and commodious dwell[illegible] almost every street, and comfortable [illegible] gible stores seem to rise as if by m[illegible] every direction. The new brick bl[illegible] First street, near the corner of Stark [illegible] idly approaching completion. The ten[illegible] belonging to Mr Stark will be ready [illegible] cupation by the 15th August, and fro[illegible] ent appearances they will be admirable [illegible] The situation for business purposes is [illegible] favorable, and we presume that tenan[illegible] ing good positions will anxiously cla[illegible] cedence over each other when they are [illegible] for lease, as we are informed is now th[illegible]

"Uncle Tom."—The attendance [illegible] Theater last night was pretty good [illegible] pears that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is [illegible] favorite with our citizens, and it ric[illegible] serves to be so, for apart from the grea[illegible] es of this beautiful and pleasing dram[illegible] part as the play is so well sustained t[illegible] audience can see before them the living [illegible] acters and life-like incidents of the wo[illegible] nowned Scenes from Southern Life.

Sheriff's Sale.—The sale of two [illegible] liard tables at auction, which was adv[illegible] to take place on Monday last, but wa[illegible] poned, will take place this morning [illegible] o'clock at the salesroom of Mr A B [illegible] ardson, auctioneer. This is a fine oppor[illegible] for those desirous of obtaining splend[illegible] liard tables at great bargains.

The Weather is again becoming [illegible] the thermometer yesterday indicating [illegible] the shade. It was not oppressively ho[illegible] ever, owing to the cooling breeze prev[illegible] for the past few days.

Arrived.—The steamer Wilson G. [illegible] arrived from the Cascades last evening, [illegible] $7,000 in gold dust to Wells, Fargo & C[illegible] addition to a considerable quantity [illegible] hands of passengers.

A Little Fact in History.—The w[illegible] which Democrats would treat Secessi[illegible] should the Secessionists not be Demo[illegible] may be inferred from the fact that whe[illegible] Quincy Adams introduced into the Ho[illegible] Representatives a petition for the disso[illegible] of the Union, the Democratic press calle[illegible] a hoary headed traitor, and said he ou[illegible] [illegible]. Mr. Adams, it will be rememb[illegible] introduced this document for the purp[illegible] establishing the right of petition, and th[illegible] no sympathy with the proposed object.

Served them right.—One or two [illegible] gentlemen of Salem, says the State[illegible] were indiscreet enough last week, to [illegible] their sympathies instead of their judg[illegible] in relation to the news from Vickst[illegible] whereby they were compelled to un[illegible] tionally surrender divers and sundry [illegible] [illegible]. They bet on the wrong man.

HOPELESS.—Never were things so quiet and orderly in Portland as at the present time; never were our Recorder's and Justice's Courts so utterly destitute of complainants and defendants. But while we must congratulate our citizens upon this unmistakeable evidence of the strict morality and propriety of the City of Portland, where shall we find solace for our own sorrows at the existence of such a lamentable condition of affairs? How feelingly we appreciate the time honored proverb that "one man's meat's another man's poison." While society is benefitted by an orderly community, the "local" is sunk in the unfathomable depths of hopeless despair. Where shall he hope to find an "exciting and tragical" local item under such discouraging circumstances? With a patience and serenity unparalleled since the advent of the immortal Job have we waited in vain for that panacea for all our griefs—an interesting local circumstance. With a perseverance worthy of a higher reward have we scoured the city daily with discouraging results. Is there no balm in Gilead? In our despairing and sinister moments dark designs of hiring some able-bodied ruffian to perform some mysterious deed obtrude themselves before our excited imagination; and the dread that the aforesaid able-bodied villain might commence operations upon ourselves alone prevents us offering him a lucrative situation. In the meantime, however, we shall imitate the renowned philosopher, Micawber, and patiently and hopefully wait for "something to turn up."

EXPLANATION.—A local item, a few mornings since, deeply afflicted, as we learn, a worthy and industrious couple, who daily bring produce to the city from the other side of the river, and have been led to suppose that reference was therein had to them. As they declare, and we doubt not justly, that no such controversy took place between them as is suggested in our joking allusion, of course we hope that those who have supposed that reference was had to them will understand that we alluded only to what actually took place, and not to the conjectures of the meddlesome individuals who desire to make trouble in a happy and well-ordered family. There are more Johns than one, and the John and his wife to whom we now refer are noted for their patient, vigilant and faithful attention to all the duties which concern them.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—We confess that we are entirely unable to keep our readers posted in regard to all the substantial improvements made in Portland by our enterprizing citizens, who seem disposed to make their capital accomplish the highest and most profitable result. Fine and commodious dwellings in almost every street, and comfortable and eligible stores seem to rise as if by magic in every direction. The new brick block on First street, near the corner of Stark, is rapidly approaching completion. The tenements belonging to Mr. Stark will be ready for occupation by the 15th August, and from present appearances they will be admirable stores. The situation for business purposes is highly favorable, and we presume that tenants seeking good positions will anxiously claim precedence over each other when they are ready for lease, as we are informed is now the case.

"UNCLE TOM."—The attendance at the Theater last night was pretty good. It appears that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is a great favorite with our citizens; and it richly deserves to be so, for apart from the great merits of this beautiful and pleasing drama, every part in the play is so well sustained that the audience can see before them the living characters and life-like incidents of the world, renowned "Scenes from Southern Life."

SHERIFF'S SALE.—The sale of two new billiard tables at auction, which was advertised to take place on Monday last, but was postponed, will take place this morning at 10 o'clock, at the salesroom of Mr. A. B. Richardson, auctioneer. This is a fine opportunity for those desirous of obtaining splendid billiard tables at great bargains.

THE WEATHER is again becoming warm, the thermometer yesterday indicating 82° in the shade. It was not oppressively hot, however, owing to the cooling breeze prevailing for the past few days.

ARRIVED.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt arrived from the Cascades last evening, with $7,000 in gold dust to Wells, Fargo & Co., in addition to a considerable quantity in the hands of passengers.

A LITTLE FACT IN HISTORY.—The way in which Democrats would treat Secessionists, should the Secessionists not be Democrats, may be inferred from the fact that when John Quincy Adams introduced into the House of Representatives a petition for the dissolution of the Union, the Democratic press called him a hoary headed traitor, and said he ought to be hung. Mr. Adams, it will be remembered, introduced this document for the purpose of establishing the right of petition, and through no sympathy with the proposed object.

SERVED THEM RIGHT.—One or two secesh gentlemen, of Salem, says the Statesman, were indiscreet enough last week, to back their sympathies instead of their judgments in relation to the news from Vicksburg; whereby they were compelled to "unconditionally surrender" divers and sundry twenties. They bet on the wrong man.

DIED:

At Belleville, New Jersey, June 19th, 1863, Mrs. CHARLOTTE LAW, mother of Henry Law, of this city, aged 70 years.

COULDN'T SUBSCRIBE.—A pair of those interesting, entertaining ladies, who of late seem to carry on so large a business in town and country in the way of procuring subscription for new works, selling engravings of the "Father of his Country," and other notabilities, and who (the ladies) are so fascinating in manner, so delightfully importunate, so sweetly un-get-off-able, called a morning or two since, at the office of a young lawyer, to induce him, as the younger of the two expressed it, with a charming smile, "to subscribe to a most elegant work, just published, to be got up in splendid style, with illustrations, etc."

"Indeed, ladies, I cannot," said our friend, "I cannot. I have no doubt of the excellence of your work, but I am not in want of anything of that kind. In fact, I do not feel able at present to subscribe for any new work of any description. The partnership of the firm of which I am a member has lately been so imprudent as to issue a new work of their own, and the expense attending its issue, not to speak of the illustrations, embellishments, and ornamental adornments with which they have seen fit to clothe the production, such an unwonted outlay has really for the present in fact crippled me; sorry, but a fact, every word of it."

"But, ah!" interrupted our enterprising agents, "perhaps we could procure you some subscribers for your work; our terms are quite reasonable. What do you call your work, sir?"

"Well, we have not fully determined as yet, but I guess I shall let Mrs Jones have her own way, and call it after myself Charles Henry."

The ladies concluded they had an engagement in the next street.—Ex.

STAND FROM UNDER.—The Marysville Appeal of the 20th ult., contains the following hint, which we trust none in our midst who boast of their Southern origin will regard as personal:

A copperhead exchange vexes itself over the alleged negro-equality and amalgamation tendencies of Northern Unionists. We would remind this nasty reptile of the press that if amalgamation prevails to any extent in the loyal States, it is according to law, and the parti-colored results of it are never sold on the auction block nor made the victims of incestuous lust. That is more than can be said of amalgamation in the land of chivalry, where some of the "best blood" courses in African veins and hoes corn or picks cotton.

D'UTASSY IN PRISON.—The Sing Sing Republican, announcing the arrival of the notorious D'Utassy at the prison in that place, says:

When he was assigned to a shop he asked his keeper to allow him to go alone from the shop to the mess-room, remarking that he deemed it too degrading for him, having been a colonel and acting brigadier general in the United States service, to march with common convicts. In answer the keeper simply remarked—"Captains, colonels and brigadiers are all alike here—all reduced to the ranks." When he incidentally mentioned that he had had a university education and was master of eleven different languages, the keeper replied, "One language is all we have here, and we want very little of that."

An amusing thing occurred in the 24th Ohio. A short time since a soldier in passing to the lower part of the encampment, saw two others from his company making a rude coffin. He inquired who it was for.

"John Bruce," said the other.

"Why," replied he, "John is not dead yet. It is too bad to make a man's coffin when you don't know whether he is to die or not."

"Don't trouble yourself," replied the others. "Dr Coe told us to make his coffin, and I guess he knows what he gave him."

SEEING THE BATTLE.—"Here's your Daily Times—all about the battle!" cried a news-boy the other day, vending his wares. An individual with shoulder straps, hearing the exciting announcement, purchased a copy, and hastily glancing at the headlines of the dispatches, remarked to the dealer in afternoon literature, "Where's all about the battle? I can't see it." "No," said the boy, "and you never will see it, as long as you hang around this town."

A Dutchman, reading an account of a meeting, came to the words, "The meeting then dissolved." He could not define the meaning of the latter word, so he referred to his dictionary, and felt satisfied. In a few minutes a friend came in, when Hanty said: "Dey must have very hot wedder dere in New York. I reads an account of a meeting where all de peoples had melted away!"

ITS ORIGIN.—The New York Democratic League declares, that the slaveholders' rebellion had its origin exclusively in the long contemplated project of perpetuating slavery by abrogating a government of majorities in the South, and thus prostrating the principle of democratic government in Southern politics.

In Pekin is issued—one can scarcely say published—a newspaper printed on a large sheet of silk. It is said to have appeared with great regularity every week during the last thousand years (!)

A RIGHT BRAVE TONE AND NATURAL.—A Richmond paper says Gen. Pemberton made the following speech to his army after he had been driven within his intrenchments:

You have heard that I was incompetent and a traitor, and that it was my intention to sell Vicksburg. Follow me and you will see the cost at which I will sell Vicksburg. When the last pound of beef, bacon and flour, the last grain of corn, the last cow and hog and horse and dog shall be consumed, and the last man shall have perished in the trenches, then and only then will I sell Vicksburg.

Well, Pemberton and his gallant men did fight until they were on the verge of famine. He did not sell Vicksburg, but he surrendered it when there were still thirty thousand men who had not yet perished in the trenches. We do not repeat Pemberton's little speech for the purpose of exulting over a brave foe in defeat, but to show that the rebels are after all merely human, and that this talk of the last man dying in the last ditch is simply bosh. Brave men in all countries fight as long as there is hope, but never immolate themselves uselessly, except in desperate cases, and where surrender would be equivalent to death or dishonor. As it was with the gallant defenders of Vicksburg, so will it be with the whole South. It will yield with a good grace, when yield it must, and find cause for gladness in the defeat of its unholy object.—App'l.

WHEREAS an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the 15th day of June 1863 by E. W. McGraw, Attorney of the United States for the district of Oregon on behalf of the United States, against certain goods, wares and merchandise, described as follows, to wit: Two bales of Furs, marked [illegible], and one box of Furs, marked [illegible] San Francisco, and one package of Furs, marked [illegible] San Francisco, alleging in said information, that on or about the 27th day of May, 1863, the said goods, wares and merchandise were landed at the Port of Astoria, in said District, from the ship or vessel Brother Jonathan, (the same being a ship or vessel then just arrived from the foreign port of Victoria, V. I.) without a permit from the Collector of the said Port of Astoria, and praying process against the said goods, wares and merchandise, and that the same be declared forfeited to the United States of America.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the warrant under the seal of the said Court, to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming said goods, wares and merchandise, or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court to be held in the City of Portland in said District, on the first Monday of July next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, (provided the same shall be a day of jurisdiction, otherwise on the next day of jurisdiction thereafter,) then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf. And I do further give notice that the said cause will come on for trial at the term of said District Court, to be holden at Portland aforesaid, on the second Monday of September next.

WILLIAM H. BENNETT, U. S. Marshal for Oregon.

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night. It will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, taken a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve the pain and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gums at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected in the morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut or gall upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea, it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Genuine Preparation.

"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"

Compound Fluid

EXTRACT BUCHU,

A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY

FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL

AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION, and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCEROUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse.

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory,	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the	Muscular System,
Hot Hands,	Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin	Eruptions on the Face
Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,

IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those direful diseases,

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION."

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess.

"THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion."

THE CONSTITUTION,

once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine, to strengthen and invigorate the system, which invariably does.

AYER'S

Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK. Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1, 18[illegible]

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours,

ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, Liv. Co., Mich., Nov. 15, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, La., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
